Charming Charlie opened its third local fashion accessories boutique Tuesday at Rookwood Commons, in space left by a now downsized Old Navy.

The roughly 10,000-square-foot store offers jewelry, belts, handbags, hair accessories and scarves organized by color and style. It's aimed to complete any outfit for a female shopper.

Charming Charlie was named the Hot Retailer of 2010 by the International Council of Shopping Centers and was recently featured among INC magazine's fastest growing private companies. Jeffrey R. Anderson Real Estate lured the retailer into all three of its managed lifestyle centers this year. Stores have already opened at Crestview Hills Town Center and Deerfield Towne Center.
